OHIO RIVER IMPROVEMENT

Congressman Charles K. Wheeler returned this morning from Washington for the holidays. He is serving his last term in congress, and as he is looking well the session's work has doubtless not been arduous. Congress has been busy, but has done nothing of great importance, as the public knows from the proceedings.

In regard to the work on the government building addition here Congressman Wheeler states that he held a consultation with the supervising architect and the plans were shown him. He made a number of changes, and was assured before he left Washington that bids would be advertised for before April 1, and work will begin on the addition, which is to cost in the neighborhood of $100,000, soon thereafter. It will be a fine structure and will contain the most modern improvements.

The delay in the rural routes has been occasioned by the fact that the petitions sent in to Washington were not on blanks furnished by the department, which is required. They had to be modified, which caused great delay, but the three additional routes are expected to be authorized shortly.

The Ohio River improvement move has resulted in nothing definite thus far. There is a strong pull in favor of it, however, and an appropriation for a survey will no doubt be made at the next session of congress, at least.

Congressman Wheeler will remain here until January 5th and then return to finish the term.

MANY PISTOLS.

HOLD-UPS HAVE EVIDENTLY FRIGHTENED THE CITIZENS OF PADUCAH.

The second hand and hardware dealers report that they are selling many pistols. The trade during the past few days has increased to a remarkable extent and there is no telling how many weapons have been sold since robbery and burglary became so rampant in Paducah. The second hand dealers seem to have had more sales than the other dealers.

BANK STATEMENT.

New York, City, Dec. 20.—The bank statement shows the following changes for the week:

PATIENT IS IMPROVING.

Leonard Holloway, the demented patient at the railroad hospital, is better today, it is thought. He is now allowed to go out and walk about. He wants to be on the go and as long as he is permitted to walk about seems to be alright except that he continues to talk in an unintelligible manner.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD.

Clearings this week were $713,648
Same week last year 482,315
Increase 231,333

The bank clearings this week show a very heavy increase over the same week last year.

Clearings last year in the same week were below the average and this week's total is above the average for this year. This is attributable to the heavy payments being made incidental to the moving of the tobacco crop, and also, the natural increase in business.

Counter business with the banks is very heavy. Christmas shoppers are drawing on their savings freely but this money will soon find its way back to the banks through the local merchants.

The Christmas shopping is very heavy this year and the present indications are that it will foot up more than any Christmas trade in the history of the city. All the important firms report very heavy buying with some an increase of 50 per cent over the same time last year. The trade started a little earlier this year than last however and may drop off in the days remaining.

If it holds up as it has done the past few days however Paducah will set the week down as the best holiday season in the history of the town. Trade was dull this morning on account of the rain but this afternoon was very brisk again.

The wholesale houses are working all their employees every night to keep up with the orders, and as is the case with the retail merchants, the season has been the best ever experienced.

One of the largest shipments of vinegar on record will be a train load consisting of 35 cars, which will be shipped west tonight by the O. L. Gregory Vinegar Works, of Paducah. This large and growing concern is always in the lead and the present shipment speaks well for its enterprise.

FISCAL COURT OVER

The Called Session Lasted But Two Days

City Ordered to Repair Yeiser Park—Contract with Illinois Central Made Relative to Levee.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS OF COURT

"Red" Johnson, who has been about the city for several months, and has been suspected as a crook for some time by the police of Paducah, was one of the most surprised men in the city today when he was arrested right in the city hall and taken into the city court room by two officers.

Johnson was hauled in last May during the carnival as a suspect and given hours to leave town, with a lot of other crooks.

He was in and out for several months and was located in various states at different times. He came back here recently, and as it was believed he was implicated in the blowing of Johnson Bros.' safe at Lola, Livingston county, a few months ago, he was arrested on suspicion and a charge of vagrancy was registered against him in order to hold him until some one got here to identify him.

He gave a $50 bond and the case was continued until Monday. He was at the city hall today when persons from Lola were there to identify him, but they could not do it, and he doubtless felt secure in obtaining his liberty next Monday.

Chief Collins had a surprise in store for him however. This morning he received a letter from Carmi,

Ill., saying that the man's name is

Red Marcum, or that is the name

he went by there, and that he is wanted there for breaking jail.

Accompanying it was a picture of a convict, Red Marcum, who is wanted for violating his parole at the Chester penitentiary, where he was sentenced for larceny. It was a picture of Johnson, who has a deep scar on the left side of his chin which makes it impossible for him to disguise himself.

He appeared to think it was very funny, and eagerly scrutinized the picture and the measurements on the back, at the same time laughing idiotically and declaring that if it was his picture he didn't know it, and that he had never been in an Illi-nios penitentiary.

It was too good a likeness, however,

and Judge Sanders promptly committed him to jail until Illinois officials arrive for him tomorrow or Monday. It is probable he is wanted in many other states, as he seems to be an all-around bad egg.

Will Strickland Confesses to Petty Larceny Today.

Other Two Defendants Will Be Given a Trial.

Will Strickland, Henry Minor and George Smith, colored, who were caught in W.K. Poage's clothing store yesterday after Strickland had stolen a pair of pants and been caught by Mr. Poage across the street, were presented today in policecourt and Strickland pleaded guilty.

The other two claim that they know nothing about the theft and did not go there for the purpose of stealing or know that Strickland was going to steal anything.

Mr. Poage testified that he suspected them because they all three came in together and watched them, and they were together all the time.

Strickland was sentenced to serve three months on the streets at hard labor, the first sentence Judge Sanders ever passed for petty larceny. Robertson then confessed that he and Jake Washington and Will Bell broke into a jewelry store and that the others have already been sent to the penitentiary.

Last night he received a message from Marshal Rayburn to hold Robertson until he gets here. Robertson then confessed that he and Jake Washington and Will Bell broke into a jewelry store and that the others have already been sent to the penitentiary.

A case against Bud Barker, colored, for creating a disturbance at the wharf about the first of the month, was left open. The man under arrest will attempt to prove that he is not the one as he is cook on the Thomas Pay and claims he can prove.

Theatrical Notes.

Coming attractions at The Kentucky:

Monday night—Tim Murphy in "Old Innocence."

Tuesday night—Earhardt's Entertain, local for Y. M. C. A.

Wednesday night—DeOnzo Bros., European Stars company.

Christmas matinee and night—Quinal and Wall's Imperial minstrels.

Tim Murphy, whom the theatrical world loves and praises, will doubtless be welcomed back to this city by a full house when he makes his appearance in "Old Innocence" at The Kentucky next Monday night.

Mr. Murphy delineates the character of one Jason Green, who by thrift has accumulated sufficient means to live comfortably, who has an abiding faith in human nature and is actuated in the minds of those who see him. Without the least affectation, without the use of unnecessary machinery or brass band accompaniment, he unfolds to the audience a gentle nature which is alive to every nobler trait of character in a manner which could not help but provoke the genuine admiration of any intelligent person. Laughter and tears mingle as the quaint humor and gentle sympathy of the character is shown. Mr. Murphy brings with him an excellent supporting company, headed by Miss Dorothy Sherrod, who is well remembered here for her charming work in "A Capital Comedy." The forthcoming presentation of "Old Innocence" is attracting no little amount of interest among the more discriminating of our theater-goers and promises to be one of the treats of the theatrical season in this city. Seats go on sale today.

All amusement lovers are awaiting the Quinal and Wall Imperial minstrels, which come to The Kentucky for matinees and night performances Christmas day. The first part of the show will be entitled "A Reception to the Diplomatic Legion." Mr. Quinal has conceived all the wonderful first parts for years, and this is his masterpiece, his greatest conception. It is highly instructive and historic. The court costumes of all the governments of earth will be worn, and it will be produced, bearing the approval of President Roosevelt and his cabinet; the crowned heads of Europe, and the distinguished diplomats of all the world. The olio will excel all predecessors; there will be new faces, new fascinations, new jokes, new songs, new dances, everything new, from "bones to afterpiece." The challenge band comprises solo artists of exceptional ability. Their daily open air concerts are a wholesome embellishment. In the parade the members of the company are attired in the full dress uniform of the admiral of the United States navy, the swellest that money can buy.

Mr. Skinner's coming production of "Lazarre" December 31 promises to be among the most artistic of the season.

There are many yet living who can recall the sensation created half a century ago, when Putnam's Monthly published a series of articles with the interrogative title, "Have We a Bourbon Among Us?" the purpose of which was to maintain that "Lawn," or Lazarre Williams, then a missionary among the Indians in Northern Wisconsin, was in reality the Dauphin of France, the abducted son of Louis XVI. Mr. Catherwood's romance, upon which Mr. Skinner's new play is founded, owes its origin to this old magazine controversy.

The coming of a successful new star or a great play is always a delight, and we are glad to announce the coming of Sol Smith Russell's famous play, "A Poor Relation," with the well known comedian, Mr. Horace Lewis, who for the past five years has been the leading comedian at the Castle Square, Boston. Mr. Lewis has been secured by Mr. Berger to appear in Mr. Russell's part. This attraction is booked for an early appearance here and will be a welcome attraction.

Twelve clever and refined acts comprise the DeOnzo Bros.' Famous European Stars, which will appear at The Kentucky on Wednesday night. This elegant company comes to us direct from their European tour and is under the personal direction of Mr. Felix Blei, formerly manager of Koster and Bial, New York City.

The only Pinero comedy on tour this season will be presented at The Kentucky soon by Sylvia Lynden and her company of New York players. It will be "The Gay Lord Quex," which ran for 600 nights in London at the Garrick, and three months at the Criterion, New York.

Miss Henrietta Crosman's amazing success in Philadelphia during her Thanksgiving week engagement at the Academy of Music, that city, in "The Sword of the King," is strikingly illustrated by figures. On Thanksgiving night the receipts were $4,075.75, and on the following night $3,500.

De Onzo Bros.' European Stars, a vaudeville company, will be here

Christmas eve. This is the first straight vaudeville company composed of high priced headliners that Manager English has ever brought to The Kentucky.

One of the most pleasantly remembered plays in the long list of Sol Smith Russell's charming productions is his "A Poor Relation" play. The early engagement here of Mr. Horace Lewis in this play has been announced.

Quinal and Wall's Imperial minstrels will arrive on a special train early Christmas day. It requires two Pullman sleepers and a sixty foot baggage car to transport this immense attraction.

Miss Gertrude Coghlan, who was here last year in "Becky Sharpe," will be back January 3, presenting "Alice of Old Vincennes."

"The Belle of New York" will be here January 22. "The Belle" made the biggest hit of any musical show here last season.

Seats went on sale this morning for both matinee and night performances of Quinal and Wall's minstrels Christmas day.

"Sporting Life" and "The Christian" are two recent big bookings for January.

"The Suburban" and "Florodora," as well as "Princess Chic" are some late bookings.

"The Burgomaster" will be seen here again this season.

"Gay Lord Quex" will be here early in January.

Mrs. LeMoyne will be here late in January.

CITY TAX BOOKS.

City Assessor Dick today turned over his books to Auditor Kirkland, and the figures will next be footed up, property values determined and the tax rate fixed. Assessor Dick has been at work on the assessment for several months, and did not have to seek property owners this time, all under the new charter being required to call on him.

SOCIETY AT CHRISTMAS TIME

The social calendar records some especially charming and elaborate entertainments this week, more so than is usually the case at this time, but you mark yourself as very old-fashioned if you pause to wonder how it can be done "so near Christmas." The fact is people pride themselves on having time for everything nowadays, and Christmas shopping and Christmas preparations while not relegated to oblivion entirely are no longer allowed to absorb one, as used to be the case, for weeks beforehand. This effort to neglect nothing and keep up with all that is going on is the cause, no doubt, of the modern malady "nervous prostration" that our ancestors never knew existed. However, there is little in prospect as yet for the coming week, there are rumors of some Christmas parties but as no definite date has been set they will doubtless be kept for the following week, and the days just before and after Christmas day will be given over to the informal family gatherings those reunions that make the pleasure of Christmas so especially happy. There may be surprises in store for the uninitiated beside those accredited to Santa Claus, though; Society is prone to do her entertaining that way of late, and the week may develop much before it is over. The society reporter often has to stand blindfold and let each day make its own especial record, and not attempt prophecy.

BREAKFAST TO MRS. HENRY HUGHES.

Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler gave a beautiful 11 o'clock breakfast on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. D. H. Hughes of Morganfield, who will after the first of the year make her home in Paducah. It was a most artistic conception and a charming introduction of Mrs. Hughes to the social life of her new home and a number of its brilliant women.

The breakfast room was a symphony in red, a gorgeous Christmas bell of holly was suspended from the center chandelier by broad red satin ribbons. The place-cards were adorned with holly and red ribbon, and in addition an American beauty rose was at each guest's plate. The elaborate silver service presented by the Democrats of the First Congressional district to Mr. Wheeler was used and gave a charming effect to the beautiful table. The breakfast was served in five courses and was most delightful. Costs were laid for 25, and at the center were Mesdames Wheeler, Hughes, Morton K. Yonts, L. M. David, Sanders, these were: Mesdames L. W. Boswell, Thomas Boswell, R. G. Terrell, Mildred Davis, George C. Wallace, Louis M. Rieke, James A. Rudy, A. R. Meyers, George C. Thompson, Joseph L. Friedman, Robert Phillips, James Campbell, William Bradshaw, I. D. Wilcox, J. M. Worten, Linneaus Orme, Edwin Wilson, Charles Emery, Hubbard S. Wells.

CHRISTMAS BASKETS FOR THE POOR.

Mrs. R. W. Chiles requests The Sun to announce that, according to her usual custom, she will send Christmas baskets to the homes of the needy of the city—to those people who will not come down to the Mission Christmas tree. She has the names of over one hundred families to whom she wishes to send a basket and finds that her supplies wont go far around. She therefore, through The Sun, asks the mothers and housekeepers of the city to, if they can in any way do so, help her in this work. She needs some more baskets, groceries, fruits, canned goods and provisions. Now this is something that should touch the heart of every one and none should refuse to aid in the laudable work. The Sun believes it requires only the announcement of it to assure Mrs. Chiles ample help and bountiful donations and is pleased to bring it to the attention of its readers.

Send your donations to the Rescue Mission on South Third and help a noble worker dispense Christmas cheer A PLEASANT OCCASION.

Miss Nona Stokes celebrated her birthday very pleasantly on Tuesday evening by entertaining a number of her friends at her hospitable home on Washington street. Dainty refreshments were served and the evening was most enjoyably spent. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Stokes, Mesdames Curd, Jones, Mesdames Ida Lyle, of Symsonia, Reva Davis, Pearl Rice, Annie Ruoff, Emma Jones, Ruby Mayers, Jennie Sullivan, Willie Womble, Edmundson, Alice Rice, Maggie Ruoff, Lucy Womble, Lora Sullivan, Nellie Stokes, Nina Kirkpatrick, Sammie Wallace, Ethel Jones, Mildred Harper, Messrs. Lon Davis, Davis Buchanan, Victor Thomas, Gus Ruoff, John Wilkins, Nelson Boaz, Arthur McDonald, Walter Watson, Vav Coles, Will Collins, Elmo Townsend, Hod Warden, Glen Stokes, Elijah Wilson, George Gammon, Oscar Harper, Lacy Threlkeld.

MR. AND MRS. DIPPLE ENTERTAIN.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dipple on South Sixth street was the scene of a delightful card party, on Tuesday evening, given in honor of their guest Miss Blanche Keller of Owensboro. The house was prettily decorated with holly and looked most attractive. The lady's prize was won by Miss Keller, and the gentleman's prize by Mr. E. Bowers. Miss Lula Kirchoff and Mr. John Dipple cut for the booby prize, and Mr. Dipple was successful. An elegant lunch was served after the game. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moore, Misses Blanche Keller of Owensboro; Kate Dipple, Lula Kirchoff, Messrs. Ed Rogers, Race Dibble, Harry Hank, John Oshachling.

COTILLION CLUB DANCE.

The Christmas German of the Cotillion club was held at the Palmer house on Thursday evening and was a most pleasant occasion. Those in attendance were: Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitesides, Mr. and Mrs. Barbour Gray of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. George Flory; Misses Mary Lee Clarke, Carline Sowell, Elizabeth Sinnott, Martha Leech, Evelyn Walker, Myrtle Decker, Mabel Rieke, Minnie Terrell, Hattie Terrell, Lillian Rudy, Ruth Weil, Emma Reed, Ethel Morrow, Ida Leak, Henrietta Koger, Annie May Yeiser, Messrs. Mac Hinckle, of Evansville, Stuart Sinnott, Abram Weil, Frank Boone, Will Webb, Tom Harrison, Frank Judge, Fred McKnight, Edwin Wilson, Henry Rudy, Edson Hart, Maurice Nash, Herbert Hawkins, John Sherwin.

MRS. RIEKE'S FLOWER LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Louis M. Rieke, gave the second of her series of charming one-o'clock luncheons on Thursday of this week. This embodied the flower idea and was as artistic and effective as the fruit idea of the previous one. Narcissus, carnations, smilax and ferns with yellow ribbons formed a beautiful center decoration. Yellow shades were used on the candelabra, and the yellow effect was emphasized throughout. The place-cards were delightfully bright and original, they represented flowers, and each one besides the guest's name contained a clever synonym of that name. The luncheon was served in six courses, and the ices, cakes and peppermints were all in the form of flowers. There were fourteen guests present.

MUSICAL TREAT AT Y. M. C. A.

The first of a series of entertainments to be given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. library was held at the association hall on Tuesday evening when the Bostleman quartette delighted all who heard them. It was a splendid entertainment, all being high class musicians, and Mr. Carl Orance's singing was a delightful feature, his solo, "the Land of the Leal" being especially encored. The only drawback to the evening's unalloyed pleasure was the fact that so few people heard them. The audience while small was very representative of the city's highest culture, however, and was most appreciative of the fine music rendered. Secretary Hanna should be more liberally encouraged in these high grade entertainments he is bringing here.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Miss Amanda Wilhelm entertained in honor of her seventh birthday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilhelm on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. A number of small guests were present and the hours were most enjoyably spent with games, the prizes for which were won by Miss Gwin Perkins and Miss Frances Soule, and Master Walker Bowman. Delightful refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misses Azalee Reeves, Mildred Orme, Edmonia Atkins, Marie Weile, Frances Soule, Grace Atkins, Corinne Perryman, Gwin Perkins, Susie Dabney, Master Edward Dean Yancy, Walker Bowman, Rudolph Bowman.

SANS SOUCI CLUB.

Mrs. Harris Rankin was the hostess of the Sans Souci club this week, entertaining most charmingly at her home on Broadway on Thursday afternoon. Euchre was played and the prize was won by Miss Margie Crumbaugh. A delightful course-luncheon was served after the game. Only the club members were present and included: Mesdames William Gilbert, David Sanders, Misses Margie Crumbaugh, Minnie Terrell, Hattie Terrell, Anna Boswell, Myrtle Greer, Lula Reed, Florence Yeiser, Angie Thomas, Mabel Rieke, Clara Thompson, Hallie Hisey, Caroline Sowell, Myra DuBois, Ruth Weil, Laura Sanders, Lillian Rudy, Ethel Morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Clarke, and little daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Rabb noble will leave on Tuesday for St. Louis to spend Christmas with Rev. B. E. Reed and family.

Miss Fannie Taylor of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George C. Thompson of West Broadway. Miss Taylor is very popular here where she has visited before.

Miss Evelyn Walker and Miss Manie Cobb will visit in Dyersburg, Tenn., during the Christmas holidays. They will be the guests of Miss Frances Harris who was a popular visitor of Miss Walker's here during the fall.

Mrs. D. H. Hughes of Morganfield, was a popular visitor in the city this week. Mr. Hughes has been here for several months but his family will not come to live until the first of the year, when their new West End home will be ready for occupancy. Mrs. Hughes made many friends here during her brief visit to her husband this week.

Miss Louise Whitfield of Clarksville, who will appear here Monday evening with the Tim Murphy company at The Kentucky, is pleasantly remembered by many here whom she met during a visit to Miss Frances Hernion several years ago. She is a very attractive and popular Clarksville girl.

Mrs. Isaac Shelby Dallam of Palestine, Texas, arrived this week to visit her mother and sisters, Mrs. Judith Robiou and Misses Caroline and Lucie Robiou on North Ninth street, and will remain several weeks. Mrs. Dallam is always a popular visitor in her old home and is very bright and charming. She is accompanied by her son, Mr. Louis Dallam.

Miss Susie Thompson will arrive next week from St. Louis where she is attending school, to spend the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George C. Thompson. Miss Thompson is a popular member of the younger society set and will be warmly welcomed. She has been away over a year, having spent her summer vacation in Kansas City.

Miss Odie Puryear left this week for Vine Grove, Ky., where she will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Inez Vertrees of that place to the Rev. James Partee of Vandalia, Mo. The wedding will take place on Christmas eve at the Baptist church and be followed by a reception at the bride's home. Miss Vertrees has visited Miss Puryear here on various occasions and is both pretty and popular.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Rawls and son Master Houston will make their home this winter in Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. Rawls' business interests are located. This is occasioning much regret in Paducah as it will be a distinct loss to the city's life in many ways. Mrs. Rawls has not only made her charming home on Madison street the center of much social pleasure, informal and artistic entertaining, but she is a leading spirit in the Home of the Friendless and other philanthropic work.

They left this week for Evansville, Ind., where they will spend the Christmas with Mrs. Rawls' family before

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight. Sunday fair and warmer.

The government is about to pass on an eight hour law. It is expected that the bill will be reported to the senate today.

The Venezuelan affair is certain to soon to end. Dewey is to make a grand stand play down near the scene of hostilities, and if that doesn't settle the controversy he can't take a few shots at them just as a diplomatic courtesy.

The voracious powers should get in their claims in time, for Venezuela is about to go into bankruptcy. This is the first time there has been any hope of a settlement with creditors for several years, and the clamoring nations should appreciate their opportunities enough not to neglect them.

The latest fake of the yellow journals is that Germany has led England into a diplomatic trap by inducing her to act jointly in the Venezuelan affair, so if the United States gets into a muddle over the Monroe doctrine, England, our best European friend, will be opposed to us. That this is all bosh seems to be the general opinion of the conservative press. The United States wouldn't care if all Europe were against her. England and Germany, either singly or jointly, would not make a good mouthful for us.

Reckless driving, especially in the business part of the city, will yet result in the death of some one; if not some good citizen, probably the careless driver of some vehicle. Daily ladies and children, to say nothing of the men, have hairbreadth escapes from being trampled beneath the feet of the horses to beer, grocery, ice and other kinds of wagons. The bicyclists are not so bad now as during the summer months but they are bad enough, and every driver or rider seen by the police going at a dangerous speed on Broadway should be arrested and made to pay a fine.

It seems evident that the Illinois Central is making some important changes to become effective shortly after the new year, but none of them affects Paducah except indirectly. It is reported that the freight, as well as passenger department of the road, is to be moved from Louisville to Memphis. If this be true, it will indicate the increasing importance of Paducah in a few years both departments may be located here. It is not generally known that the freight business of the road has so increased here within the past few years that where the road formerly had two switch engines to do its work it now has eight, and all of them are constant.

To The Sun
I inclose herewith

for the Christmas tree to be given the poor of the city
this coming Christmas

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, varicose, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor.
Simply send your name and address to Dr.
Henry W. Collier, 115 Main Street, Hill Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from their daily mail show what men think of their generosity:

"Dear Sirs—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have given your treatment a thorough trial and the result has been extraordinary. I am completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sirs—Your method worked beautiful.
Results are excellent and I need not worry about my health again. I have completely recovered and salar-ment is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sirs—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men.
I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man to have it.

ly kept busy.

More care should be paid the county assessments, as well as the city asses-ments. Attention has been repeatedly called to the importance of assessments, and some idea of the incomplete manner in which they have been made in the past may be obtained from the report of the sheriff, which shows nearly $18,000 collected by him on property that the assessor and supervisors overlooked and there is no telling how much more there may be. The authorities should have a complete map of the county made for the use of the assessor. It would save thousands of dollars and fill a long felt want. Another thing, if money enough is not paid to get good, competent men as assessors, the county should increase the compensation, and then the people should see that capable men are elected to the places. Assessments are too important to become matters of indifference, as they have in this country.

Neither the third class charter, under which Paducah formerly operated, nor the second class charter, under which she is now operating, permits any public officials spending money for any purpose except that for which it is expressly appropriated. In past years in Paducah, it is claimed, several thousand dollars has been appropriated annually for interest, and a portion of this interest was to go into a fund with which to pay any judgment in the over-the-river bonds that might be rendered. Some claim that this was never done, but other officials claim that it was. If it was, it is not in the treasury where it ought to be, and was not in the treasury at the time the judgment was recently rendered. If it was appropriated to pay the interest, no one had a right to pay anything else with it, and if it was paid out for something else, there ought to be some redress for the taxpayers. There should be money in the sinking funds, also but there is not. How many thousand dollars have thus been wasted, in addition to the outstanding indebtedness and the enormous cost of maintaining the government, makes the financial plight of the city anything but one to inspire pride and prosperity.

A Former Predicament.
The cook in a southern family was fat, black and 60, and a devoted church woman. A "laboring brother" in the same church, a widower with a dozen children, was so assiduous in his attentions that he could be seen haunting the kitchen at all hours. The mistress of the house finally said to the cook:

"I do hope you won't marry that old man, with all those children." "No, ma'am," was the reply: "I done been kocked in dat predicament once already," which was the first intimation that had been given, in a long service, that she was entitled to wear the weeds of widowhood.—Detroit

They have a Sunday closing ordiplug tobacco on Sunday, but his attorney raised the point that chewing tobacco is a necessity. Judge Brown, before whom the case was tried, took the same view and discharged the accused. Then he took a fresh chew of plug and called the next case.

Missed a Golden Opportunity.

Mr. F. W. Salzmann, who died recently at Bloemfontein, aged 83, was fond of telling the story of how he failed to become a millionaire. When he was surveying Griqualand, W. De Beers, the owner of the farm which is now the site of the famous diamond fields, in a fit of despair offered to sell Mr. Salzmann his waterless, barren tract in exchange for a waistcoat. Mr. Salzmann refused to buy.

TAKEN TO LYON.

ALLEGED SAFE BLOWERS LEFT TODAY FOR EDDYVILLE.

Captain Henry Bailey and Officer Joe Woods left this morning at 8 o'clock with O'Neil and Russell, the alleged safe blowers, to take them to Eddyville, Ky. It is alleged they blew a safe at Confederate, Ky. Both men were very quiet and seemed to be perfectly at ease. They had, but little to say and spoke on no occasion unless questioned. They are both rather young looking but have the appearance of having "roughed it" all their life.

WAS ONLY A DOG.

Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Gilbert of North Seventh street thought he had discovered a murder last night when he came across considerable blood on the sidewalk. He telephoned the police and Capt. Bailey soon had men on the scene, but the blood, after the excitement had died down, proved to have come from a small dog of Postman Charles Williamson, which was hurt in getting over a fence.

FRIGHTENED AWAY.

BURGLARS ENTERED CAPT. G.C. CRUMBAUGH'S.

A burglar was discovered in the residence of Captain G. C. Crumbaugh at Seventh and Madison streets this morning but was frightened away before he had completely burglarized the house.

About 6 o'clock his daughter, Miss Margery Crumbaugh was awakened by the intruder who had come into her room. She screamed loudly and the man was frightened so badly that he ran and jumped through the dining room window, which he had left conveniently raised. In going he picked up Captain Crumbaugh's overcoat and hat and Miss Crumbaugh has missed a pin. Other than this it is thought that he took nothing. Three caps were found in the yard where the thief had dropped them. The case has been put in the hands of the police who are working on it this morning.

The Dick Fowler cleared for Cairo on time this morning.

The Bonanza will pass up en route to Cincinnati from Memphis today.

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.

Monticello, Ill.

Gentlemen.—Late suppers gave me a serious case of indigestion and dyspepsia, and often very bad headaches. I took mineral waters for a couple of months, but nothing seemed to help me permanently until I tried

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

My people have a great dislike to patent medicines, for as a rule we have found them worthless, but your Syrup Pepsin is a notable exception. It cured me in three weeks, and we have used it at home until it has become a general family medicine. It is very pleasant and easy to take, and it not only relieves but effects a permanent cure. I give this testimony with the greatest gratitude for the help I have obtained.

CASE 113

...By...
Emile Gaboriau

Escaping almost certain death, Gaston, who before leaving the chateau had placed the signal for Valentine in his window, reached La Verberie and had an interview with his beloved. She informed him that she would soon become a mother. Before parting he left with her the jewels given him by his father, then fled the country, going to South America. That night the old marquis died, Louis, assuming that his elder brother had been drowned, took the title and the estate. He left Clameran immediately and began a life full of ignominy.

"Valentine confessed her condition to her mother, who took her to England, where she provided for her daughter's secret accouchement under the care of a physician and a maid, Milhonne. A son was born, which the countess immediately sent away to be adopted by a farmer. Subsequently Mme. de la Verberie persuaded her daughter to attempt to forget the past, to consider it buried in oblivion and to marry. A young engineer, M. Andre Fauvel, spent some time at Beaucaire, where they lived, and fell in love with Valentine, who, urged by her mother, accepted his intentions and finally married him. M. Fauvel afterward became the famous Paris banker. The countess died in 1859.

"Louis de Clameran, after an absence from home of eighteen years, returned, and from Milhonne, the maid who had been with Valentine at the time of her confinement, learned that his brother had not been drowned, that Valentine had had a son by Gaston and that she had subsequently married M. Fauvel. Impoverished by his excesses and unable to find a living honestly, Louis determined to use this information for the purpose of extorting money from Mme. Fauvel. Going to Paris, he called upon her and gave her to understand that he knew of her past. In order to better serve his purpose he told her that her son by Gaston was living, that he had been brought up in London, that his father had been there and found him, that Gaston had died in poverty and had asked him (Louis) to apply to her for means for the maintenance of their son Raoul. Mme. Fauvel at once gave Louis the jewels Gaston had left with her at their last interview to be used for Raoul. Louis, soon introduced a young man to her who personated her son and received from her large sums, which the two villains divided. All this Mme. Fauvel kept a secret from her husband. Finally Clameran, in order to facilitate his plans, demanded that she receive Raoul into her house. Mme. Fauvel had a cousin living at St. Remy of the name of Lagors, and Clameran, partly by persuasion, partly by intimidation, induced Mme. Fauvel to announce her supposed son as her nephew, Raoul de Lagors. This was done, and Raoul, having constant access to Mme. Fauvel, soon extorted a small fortune, which he squandered.

"Louis de Clameran now conceived the idea of marrying Madeleine, with whom he had fallen violently in love. To force her to break with Prosper he used the power he possessed over Mme. Fauvel. Madeleine discovered her aunt's situation and in order to avert a catastrophe consented to give up Prosper, whom she loved, and marry Clameran, whom she detested. Breaking her engagement with Prosper, she secured his promise to take upon himself the sole responsibility of the rupture.

"Meanwhile Gaston had made a fortune in South America and returned to France. To still the memory of his youthful misfortunes he resolved to engage in business and bought an iron mill at Oloron. Louis, hearing of his arrival, went to Oloron and greeted him with every pretense of affection. Louis took up his quarters with his brother, who soon sickened and died under very suspicious circumstances, leaving his fortune to Louis.

"Louis now turned his attention to forcing Madeleine to marry him. He agreed to settle a large income upon Raoul if he would extort money from Mme. Fauvel in sufficient quantity to embarrass her. Raoul consented and lived recklessly on the means furnished by the woman who supposed she was his mother. Finally, having no more to give him, she was persuaded to surrender her diamonds, a present from her husband on the day he became worth a million. When Mme. Fauvel's jewels were gone, Madeleine's were given up. All were pawned by Raoul.

"Louis de Clameran was not satisfied to marry Madeleine while her heart was given to another. He determined to ruin Prosper, that she might lose her respect and her love for him. One night at a supper at which Raoul and Prosper were present Raoul heard Prosper, under the influence of wine, name the word (Gipsy) that would unlock the safe in M. Fauvel's bank. This he communicated to Clameran, also telling him that when M. Fauvel went out he always left the key to the safe in the drawer of his secretary in his chamber.

If the water holds out and the boats have luck the present run of coal south will be a record breaker. All the big towboats except the new Sprague are hitched to heavy tows of coal and headed for the South.

THE FATAL SPOT

In everybody's foot there is one weak spot—The toes are strong, the ball of the foot is firm, the heel is unyielding, but the ARCH of the foot under the instep is a weak place. Being arched it is wholly unsupported—being weak its the one place that gets tired, but all the same its the muscle by which you walk, its the one part of the foot that needs to be helped.

The Dorothy Dodd Shoe

supports the arch of the foot by a special curved shank between the inner and outer soles, this shank exactly follows the arch of the foot. It holds its shape and supports the foot.
